

OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL OF THE INTELLIGENCE COMMUNITY NEWS RELEASE

Inspector General of the Intelligence Community Announces 2019 Inspectors General Conference

(November 7, 2018) Inspector General of the Intelligence Community Michael K. Atkinson will host the 2019 Annual Intelligence Community Inspectors General Conference on March 28, 2019, at the National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency in Springfield, Virginia. The conference will bring together members of the Inspector General Community to exchange ideas on topics of common interest and provide training through educational instruction and collaborative working group sessions.

Conference schedule information with registration details will be made available to cleared participants in the near future. Requests for information may be directed to IC IG PAO@dni.gov for referral to the conference coordinator. The program provides Certified Professional Education (CPE) credit for attendance.

The Intelligence Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2010 established the Office of the Inspector General of the Intelligence Community within the Office of the Director of National Intelligence. The ICIG's mission is to provide independent and objective oversight of the programs and activities within the responsibility and authority of the Director of National Intelligence, to initiate and conduct independent audits, inspections, investigations, and reviews, and to lead and coordinate the efforts of the Intelligence Community Inspectors General Forum. The ICIG's goal is to have a positive and enduring impact throughout the Intelligence Community, to lead and coordinate the efforts of an integrated Intelligence Community Inspectors General Forum, and to enhance the ability of the United States Intelligence Community to meet national security needs while respecting our nation's laws and reflecting its values. The Forum consists of the twelve statutory and administrative Inspectors General having oversight responsibility for an element of the Intelligence Community. The Chair of the Forum is the Inspector General of the Intelligence Community.
